Why Include a Charitable Gift in Your Will?

1. It's simple to do. It can be as easy as including language stating, "I give ten percent of the net value of my estate to Cooperman Barnabas Medical Center (formerly Saint Barnabas Medical Center)."
2. You can change your mind. We won't receive the gift until after your death. During your lifetime, you can amend anything you choose, i.e., beneficiaries, amounts, etc.

1. Give a percentage of your estate — e.g., "I give 25% of the net value of my estate as finally determined for federal estate tax purposes to Cooperman Barnabas Medical Center (formerly Saint Barnabas Medical Center)."
2. Give a percentage of the residue of your estate — the amount left after specific bequests have been given to individuals and organizations; e.g., "I give 25% of the rest, residue, and remainder of my estate to Cooperman Barnabas Medical Center (formerly Saint Barnabas Medical Center)."
3. Give a specific dollar amount or item of property; e.g., "I give Cooperman Barnabas Medical Center (formerly Saint Barnabas Medical Center) $25,000" or "I give Cooperman Barnabas Medical Center (formerly Saint Barnabas Medical Center) 100 shares of IBM stock."
